Open to the Unexpected

Perhaps one of the most exciting (and at the same time unnerving) aspects of Christianity is its nonconforming nature. We think we finally understand the way God is working in our lives, and then something happens that seems to turn our understanding inside out.

We extol Christ as the exalted image of the invisible God, as the firstborn of all creation, the one in whom all else was created, and then we stand at the foot of the cross seeing the blood flow from his crucified body. The exalted one is humiliated, and it is precisely through his humiliation that he is exalted.

We are told to love our neighbor, and when we ask who that might be, we are told a story that turns the question around. "Who is my neighbor?" or "Whom should I love?" becomes "Who is a true neighbor?" or "How neighborly am I?"

Attention shifts from the object of our love to the character of our own loving, from deciding who deserves our love to loving without judging who is deserving.

One Who Showed Mercy

Jesus constantly criticized religion without action, ritual without justice. Today's story is a challenge to think about the root of charity: compassion.

Charity is only Christian when it is rooted in the recognition that we are united with those in need; our well-being, our very salvation, is at stake in their particular condition.

Christian charity recognizes that in Christ, God has become one with humanity. It is impossible to look at human beings the same way again. Love of God and love of neighbor are forever tied together. As a result, acts of charity, or better, of justice, are an intrinsic, indispensable part of being a follower of Jesus.

PARISH NOTES

Congratulations

We extend warm wishes to Nicholas & Katrina (Greco) Errett who were married here on Friday. May the Lord bless them as they begin their new life together and deepen their love for each other.

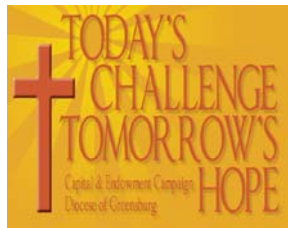

In Sympathy

We commend to your prayers David Tirdel & Alfred Belli who died recently. May God welcome them to the joys of Paradise and bring comfort and peace to their families.

Capital Campaign Update

Thanks to the generosity of parishioners who made a million dollars in gifts and pledges to the Capital Campaign, we received our first parish rebate check in the amount of $73,000.00!

With this money in hand, we will move forward with the first of the parish projects to be funded by the Today's Challenge, Tomorrow's Hope Campaign, namely, the handicap-accessible restroom off the Chapel of the Seven Sacraments. Many thanks to all who made such a generous commitment to the Capital Campaign for the good of our parish and diocese!

Statue and Memorial Wall Dedication

Mark your calendar now for the dedication of the new statues and memorial wall on Sunday, August 15. The festivities will begin with 10:30 AM Mass, followed by a reception for the donors of the statues and memorial stones. The dedication will include a procession to each of the statues with song and prayers of blessing. A public reception will follow at 2:00 PM in Marble Hall. All are welcome.

Church Roof

The roof on the Church will be replaced in July. The roof was severely damaged in February's winter storm. Please be aware that for one week, we will have limited parking next to the Church due to the placement of dumpsters. The project should take one to two weeks to complete depending on weather.

Trash & Treasure Sale

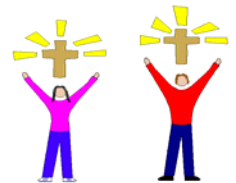

Many thanks to all who donated, sorted, sold and bought treasures at the annual Trash & Treasure Sale to benefit the MSP Food Bank and Emergency Fund. Thanks to the generosity of so many who gave of their time, talent and treasures, we raised $8,073.50!

We extend a special note of thanks to Cindy Donaldson and Jean Gallo, to all the many workers at the sale, to the kitchen crew, especially Patty Luffy and Teresa Fazio, as well as to those who helped set up, tear down and clean up after the week long event! The week was a reminder that great things can happen when we work together to live the Gospel message and to care for others!

Congratulations to Linda Pyles who won $129.50 on the 50/50 Raffle.
