- MONDAY: Five Paths to Spiritual Maturity
- TUESDAY: Return of the Prodigal (Followed by Confessions)
- WEDNESDAY: A Peace the World can not give

Fr. Scott Seethaler was born in Pittsburgh, PA and presently resides there. He was ordained a Roman Catholic priest in 1969, and is a member of the Capuchin-Franciscan Order. Fr. Scott has a master's degree in Religious Education.

He has taught high school in Pennsylvania and Maryland and has also taught at Slippery Rock University and Duquesne University.

Since 1975, Fr. Scott has traveled as a motivational speaker throughout the United States. He speaks in both religious and public forums concerning issues of stress, personal and professional excellence, and family values. In 1998, he received the Communication and Leadership Award from District 13 of Toastmasters International.

His resources, retreats, radio ministry and newsletter have helped many people. His radio program: Joyful Reflections is aired six days a week on a variety of radio stations in Western Pa.

Following in the footsteps of St. Francis of Assisi, who had a great love for the poor, Fr. Scott built a hospital for the poor and sick in Oaxaca, Mexico in 2000.
